Wedlake Bell LLP chooses FWBS to deliver new client and matter processes.

Northampton – May 7th, 2010 – FWBS Ltd are pleased to announce that Wedlake Bell have signed an agreement to purchase MatterCentre from FWBS, to bring new Client and Matter processes to the firm.

Wedlake Bell is a leading London law firm providing a full service to corporate and private clients. As a leading firm they need to bring the latest legal software innovation to their client marketing and reporting functions, with common case and matter functions that can be dovetailed in afterwards.

"We are interested in improving our efficiency," said Philip Matthews, Managing Partner at Wedlake Bell. "The FWBS MatterCentre system will allow us to streamline our procedures and maximise our matter, contact and client relationship capabilities, helping us to improve our service to our clients."

Linda Webster, Head of IT at Wedlake Bell, adds "The combination of MatterCentre's breadth of functionality as well as its modular approach is perfect. Wedlake Bell needs to solve some urgent business challenges around firm wide client information and reporting, as well as case and matter management in the near future. We will now have a unified way of delivering this functionality with a single solution, based on the Microsoft platform".

Mark Craddock, sales and marketing director at FWBS added, "FWBS are providing industry leading productivity gains via MatterCentres case & matter management functionality. We are delighted to help Wedlake Bell improve management of all its matters and processes, taking advantage of our modular & easy to deploy solution."
